Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., January 8th, 1889.

O. C. Fosbyshell, Esq.,

Superintendent, U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia, Penna.

Sir:

I will thank you to furnish me with an estimate of what it would cost to coin twenty thousand dollars [$20,000] in five-cent nickel pieces, the mint purchasing the metal and performing all the labor.

The estimate should include the cost of dies which would be required.

Respectfully yours,

E. A. Leech
Director of the Mint
